OLD FRIENDS TOGETHER. Oh, time is sweet when roses meet With spring's sweet breath around them, And sweet the time when hearts are lost, If those we love have found them; And sweet the mind that still may find A star in darkast weather : But nought can be so sweet to see As old friends meet together.

Those days of old, when youth was bold, And time stole wings to speed it; And youth ne'er knew how fast time flew, Or knowing did not heed it; Though grey each brow tha meets us now, (For age brings wintry weather).

Yet nought can be so sweet to see

As those old friends together. The few long known, whom years have shown With hearts that friendship blesses; A hand to cheer, perchance a tear To soothe a friend's distresses, Who helped and tried, still side by side A friend to face bad weather-Oh, thus may we yet joy to see

A WOOD-EN WARNING. Some time ago, say a year or two, Or three, or four, Or may be more,

And meet o'd friends together !

Divers and sundry of our country friends Who take our paper, Did then and there in cheerful mood Promise to bring us cords of Wood . Therefore be it understood, For our own and others good, That their neglect we've couly stood, Just about as long as we could; Now then, all we've got to say, is,

That for them the safest way is,

To bring their wood, and save their credit,

That we may'nt freeze who have to edit.
